Greetings to our friends and family!

The Pour Gourmet is delighted to announce that we are now filling orders for our fresh, homemade sauces, dips and dressings. Take advantage of our special “friends and family” rates this holiday season—our “recession special” is truly special!

If you'd like unique sauces to dress up your holiday meals, try one of our five “All-Stars!”

- “Honey, You’re Money” is the ideal dressing for fresh salads and makes a scrumptiously simple marinade for roasted or steamed veggies, chicken, honey-baked ham and turkey. It’s also a delicious dip for pretzels and other salty snacks.
- “Chip on our Shoulder” This exceptional, smoky chipotle honey mustard adds a delightful kick to your veggies and chicken, and is especially good at spicing up your mac n’ cheese!
- “Beer-B-Q” is absolutely delectable on beef, potatoes and other savory foods. Slow simmered in stout, this marinade imparts an earthy flavor that complements any hearty dish. As a bonus, it makes a great topping on the French fries of your choice!
- “Fire Works” is fiery hot, and performs perfectly on Buffalo wings and other fried, baked and roasted holiday indulgences for those who want a delicious “kick” in their diet.
- “Pining for Peppers” is a sweet and spicy blend that works great as a marinade and as a salsa, making it perfect for fish, seafood and salads. Try it with tortilla chips or plantain chips for sweet and tangy snack.
